Petitioner's Understanding of Basic Tribunal Procedures

By my signature at the end of this form, I affirm that I understand these basic procedures of the Tribunal and agree to respect them.

- The Catholic Church presumes (canon 1060) that every marriage is valid unless the contrary is clearly proven by evidence I present.
- There is no guarantee that my marriage will be declared null.
- My spouse has the right to know why I say the marriage is invalid and has the right to participate in this process so I have provided a correct current address.
- I must not even tentatively schedule a date for a wedding (or convalidation) until the tribunal process may be completed with an affirmative decision.
- There is no guarantee how long this process may take.
- Even if this marriage is declared null, I may receive a caution or restriction which would mean I may not remarry in the Catholic Church until certain conditions are met.

By my signature at the end of this form, I certify that

- I have contacted witnesses I have named and they agree to participate in this process.
- I verify that I have not discussed this case with those witnesses.
- I have kept a photocopy of everything I submit to the Tribunal.
- I have informed those involved in my life (such as an intended spouse, a current civil spouse, my parents, and others who may feel entitled to know) that the Tribunal is not permitted to give any information about this case to anyone except myself and the respondent and the procurator/advocates we may have appointed.

By my signature I swear to the truthfulness of all the evidence I am submitting.

Your responses will be held confidential except from those who have a right to review them by Church law including your former spouse, the Respondent.

Do not write on this page. Attach your responses to this form on separate paper(s) clearly numbering each response. (Do not put only one response on a page.) Type or print legibly in black or dark blue ink. A simple "yes" or "no" is usually not sufficient. Respond to each question with facts not opinions. For example, to say, "He was very immature" tells the Judges nothing. To say, "I thought she was immature because she was fired from four jobs in the two years that we dated" is helpful information.

Signature _____ Date _____

It is recommended that the formal petition be completed after you have reviewed the entire document of the Petitioner's responses to the F-100.

On the following page:

with = former spouse; include maiden name.

on = date of the wedding

at = place/church of the wedding

in = city, state

before = priest, deacon, minister, rabbi, civil official because = canonical reason for this petition

Many reasons can be alleged for the invalidity of a particular marriage. Below is a list of examples of statements you might combine to assist the Petitioner in completing the form on the next page. The formal petition must indicate a canonical reason for nullity.

The formal petition will be sent to the Respondent with the citation that begins the case so it should invite the participation of the Respondent which can only help the case. Statements should be truthful but not focus on blaming the Respondent for the failure of the marriage. The allegation about why the marriage is null needs to focus on the moment of consent, the wedding, not something that happened later in the marriage. If the Petitioner is honest about his/her part in the failure of the relationship, the Respondent may choose to agree with the formal petition which could help the case.

_My (our) young age and inexperience prevented a mature enough decision to marry. (Give some examples of gross immaturity at the time of the wedding.)

_My (our) experience(s) of marriage/family was (were) not good so marriage was an escape from (what? an abusive home?).

_Pregnancy was the main reason for the wedding and there was extreme pressure from (whom?) to marry.

_I (we) refused to have children. (How was conception prevented?)

_I (we) never intended to be faithful because (reasons why?).

_I had serious doubts about making a lifetime commitment but (why did you marry anyway?).

_I intended only to remain married as long as I felt love for my spouse. I thought divorce was an option for these reasons: (name them). I did not intend permanence.

_I was afraid of being alone and naively thought I could change the Respondent.
